

ZIONIST LEADER DIES.

David Wolfsohn Was Once Chairman of International Committee.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Word has been received in London from Homburg of the death of David Wolfsohn, the well-known Zionist, who was at one time Chairman of the International Zionist Committee.

Dr. Wolfsohn made the opening and closing speeches at the International Zionist Congress held at The Hague in 1907. In his closing address he pleaded for greater unity among the Jews and said that eventually they must conquer the world.

Major Wallis O. Clark, U. S. A.

Major Wallis O. Clark, U. S. A., retired, of Washington, died in Boston, Mass., on Monday of Bright's disease, aged 60 years. He was educated in Chelsea, Mass., and at the West Point Military Academy. He was in active service under Gen. Miles in the Indian campaigns, and also served in Cuba, the Philippines, and Panama. At one time Major Clark was United States Military Attaché at Guatemala. Within the last year, although on the retired list, he was connected with the War College in Washington. The rank of Major was conferred upon him in reward for bravery at the Battle of El Caney in the Spanish war.

Matthew Baird.

Matthew Baird, Vice President and a Director of the Matthew Baird Contracting Company of 433 East Ninety-second Street, died on Tuesday at his home, 112 West Seventy-seventh Street. He was the oldest son of James Baird and the late Clara E. Baird. Mr. Baird is survived by his brothers, Charles R. and William P. Baird, who are, respectively, President and Secretary and Treasurer of the company.

Obituary Notes.

Mrs. MARY MARCELLA JANEWAY, wife of Hugh Janeway, a former noted Princeton football star, and a member of the well-known Janeway family of Hackensack, N. J., dropped dead in her home there yesterday from heart disease. Mrs. Janeway was formerly Miss Leonard of New York.

SIDNEY WILLITS died yesterday at his home in Jericho, L. I., aged 73 years. He was a descendant of an old and wealthy Quaker family. He is survived by Albert and John R. Willits, brothers, and Mrs. Addie Jackson and Miss Hannah T. Willits, sisters.

LEWIS C. KELLER, for a number of years prominent in Republican politics in Hoboken, and a veteran printer, died yesterday at his home, 211 Adams Street, Hoboken, in his fiftieth year. He was a member of Hoboken Lodge F. & A. M., the Hoboken Republican Club, and Typographical EDMOND CHARLES GETTY, United States Consul to Canada in 1869, died suddenly of acute indigestion at his home in Hudson, N. Y., yesterday. Mr. Getty was seventy years old. He was Deputy County Treasurer for several years and was a former Recorder of Hudson. Lately he had been engaged in the bonding business in Hudson. Mr. Getty is survived by a son, Edmond Charles Getty, who is with the State Highway Department.

Dr. J. H. BELL of the White Star liner Adriatic is dead in Liverpool, England, in his fiftieth year. He was born in Montreal and was a graduate of McGill University. He had been fifteen years in the company's service between New York and Liverpool. Dr. Bell was known to thousands of American travelers and had been appointed recently to the new liner Britannic, which is nearing completion in Belfast.

EDGAR NICHOLD SHELDON, formerly a United States Customs Inspector at this port, is dead of heart disease at his home in Yonkers. He was seventy-two years old and was in the Federal service for forty-seven years. His widow survives him.

HERMAN WEISCHERT died on Tuesday at his home, 1,440 Gates Avenue, Brooklyn, of a complication of diseases. His widow, four daughters, and a son survive him.

EDMOND J. HIRLE, for thirty-seven years an employe of Harper Brothers, publishers, died on Monday at his home, 888 Macon Street, Brooklyn, of apoplexy. His widow, two daughters, and a son survive him.

JOHN C. COTNER, a letter carrier of Station C, Brooklyn, died Tuesday of heart disease at his home, 5,614 Fourth Avenue, Brooklyn, aged forty-one years. His widow survives him.

ALFRED KING, one of the original settlers of Cayuga County, died at his home in Ledyard, N. Y., yesterday in his one hundred and first year. He was born in England, the authenticity of his date of birth being unquestioned.

BERNHARD GOLDSMITH, eighty-one years old, a retired hatter, died on Tuesday at his home, 462 Decatur Street, Brooklyn. Mr. Goldsmith was born in Frankfort, Germany, and came to this country as a young man. He was a member of Montauk Council, Royal Arcanum; the Free Court Israel, the B'nai Brith, Brooklyn Orphan Asylum Society, and the Jewish Federation of Charities.

DAVID WALLACE FORFAR died yesterday at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. Edward Parrish, 209 Clinton Street, Brooklyn, aged thirty-one years.

Miss LENORA PLACE, aged forty-two years, a daughter of Joshua and Matilda Place, died yesterday at her residence, 4,157 Brandon Avenue, Brooklyn Manor. She is survived by her parents, a brother, and sister.

FREDERICK J. WAHL, a shipping clerk for the American News Company, died yesterday morning at his home, 3,069 Fulton Street, Brooklyn. His father, Adam Wahl, died three weeks ago. Mr. Wahl was a member of the Charles D. Palmer Republican organization and left his mother, a brother, and two sisters.

Mrs. SARAH G. BISHOP, born in England seventy-two years ago and a resident of Brooklyn for many years, is dead at the home of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Hagerty, 720A Quincy Street.